Please note that providers should not complete Part B. Individual attorneys applying for CLE credit must complete all parts. If submitted by an attorney for individual credit, only calculate and include total minutes actually attended in Part C. The Commission will enter the approved hours directly in the attorney's record based on this information unless a modification is required. If the application is submitted prior to the activity, a Notice of Accreditation will be issued.

Submit one application for each activity. (Exception: Identical programs being repeated on different dates and/or locations can be submitted on one application)

Attorneys must be provided with high quality instructional materials at or before the program. Supreme Court Rule 804(g)(4). See also Instructional Materials Guidelines.

Instructional materials are not required with the initial application but may be requested. If instructional materials are submitted, the materials become property of the Commission and will not be returned.
